

Please ensure that you complete all sections of the result sheet.

Both Home and Away teams complete the left-hand (RED) side of their own sheet before passing it to the opposition BEFORE the game - no changes to the team list should be made after the exchange even if a player on the list does not play.

Your team name must appear at the top of your list and at either Home or Away.

All information should be in BLOCK CAPITALS to avoid confusion and all players names should be in FULL not just initials.

Please ensure that you complete all sections of the result sheet.

Both Home and Away teams complete the left-hand (RED) side of their own sheet before passing it to the opposition BEFORE the game - no changes to the team list should be made after the exchange even if a player on the list does not play.

Your team name must appear at the top of your list and at either Home or Away.

All information should be in BLOCK CAPITALS to avoid confusion and all players names should be in FULL not just initials.

Please ensure that you complete all sections of the result sheet.

Both Home and Away teams complete the left-hand (RED) side of their own sheet before passing it to the opposition BEFORE the game - no changes to the team list should be made after the exchange even if a player on the list does not play.

Your team name must appear at the top of your list and at either Home or Away.

All information should be in BLOCK CAPITALS to avoid confusion and all players names should be in FULL not just initials.

Please ensure that you complete all sections of the result sheet.

Both Home and Away teams complete the left-hand (RED) side of their own sheet before passing it to the opposition BEFORE the game - no changes to the team list should be made after the exchange even if a player on the list does not play.

Your team name must appear at the top of your list and at either Home or Away.

All information should be in BLOCK CAPITALS to avoid confusion and all players names should be in FULL not just initials.